BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Requests that orders of Government may be issued defining the powers of the I. G. of Pris re the purchase of articles for the use of the Jails manufactures Department.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Comptroller brings to the notice of Govt that the I. G. of Prisons has purch a fly shuttle loom at a cost of Rs 15 for use in the Mysore Jail and when asked whether the orders of Govt. were obtained for the purchase of jail to have replied that no orders were obtained thereby and that it has been usual, from a very long time, to make such purchases for the manufacture Deptt of jails, without any previous reference to Govt.

2 The Comptroller now reports that the powers of the I. G. to make such purchases within Govt's sanction be clearly defined He points out an instance wherein the orders of Govt were obtained by the I. G for purchase an article worth Rs 60. In 1904 also the I. G. of Prisons applied for and obtained the sanction of Govt for the purchase of two Copper vessels for the Bezwada Central Jail.
